Education

Bachelor of Medicine and Bachelor of Surgery (MBChB)

University of Nairobi (UoN)

2017 - Today

I am pursuing my final year of medical school, with training across clinical rotations such as internal medicine, obstetrics, surgery, pediatrics, and emergency care specializing in patient management, diagnostic skills, and clinical decision-making. I am on an academic break and I would like to take this time to focus on consolidating skills across a range of specialties.

High School Diploma

Alliance Girls' High School

2013 - 2016

I graduated with an A. Additionally, I completed my education here with a strong academic record and involvement in extracurricular activities, including the school choir and The Kenya Red Cross. At Alliance, I developed foundational skills in science, leadership, teamwork and resilience.

Experience

Health Innovator

Digital Health Africa

2023-2024

I collaborated with members from over 9 African countries in various projects. In the 2023 African Digital Health Student Bootcamp competition, I submitted my project that won 4th place in Africa.

Clinician Assistant

Kenyatta National Hospital

2023

I supported medical staff with patient care tasks, including taking medical histories, assisting in examinations, and ensuring accurate documentation. Additionally, I helped prepare patients for procedures, managed appointments, and maintained an organized clinical environment to enhance patient care and efficiency.

Research Assistant

Kenyatta National Hospital

2021 - 2022

I performed data analysis and assisted in preparing research materials, ensuring data integrity and accuracy. Additionally, I coordinated study logistics such as recruitment, consent forms, and scheduling, while supporting administrative tasks like maintaining records and managing correspondence.

Laboratory Demonstrator

College of Health Sciences, UoN

2018 - 2019

I facilitated lab sessions by demonstrating procedures and providing hands-on support to students. Ensuring the lab environment is safe, organized, and equipped for each practical session was also my responsibility.

Banking clerk

Equity Bank Limited

2017

I processed customer transactions, including deposits, withdrawals, and transfers, ensuring accuracy, efficiency and adherence to banking procedures. I also maintained records, managed customer inquiries, and assisted with account management tasks.
